*Therefore, my beloved
brethren, be ye
steadfast, unmovable,
always abounding in
the work of the Lord,
forasmuch as ye know
that your labor is not
in vain in the Lord.
I Cor. 15:58*

Psa 37:3-5 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. 4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. 5 Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

The Lord continues to bless us and has confirmed to us again and again that this is His will for us. We now have our passports and our tickets in hand and we are just waiting (somewhat patiently) for Nov. 10th to arrive. Thanks to everyone who has been faithfully praying for our passports to arrive in time. God is still in the business of answering prayers! An example of God blessing us comes in the form of an anonymous person. When we bought our plane tickets, we paid all but a few hundred dollars up front. A couple of weeks later we sent the remainder owed. When we received our tickets in the mail, included in the envelope was our check for the remaining amount and a note. The note informed us that someone who wished to remain anonymous paid the remaining amount for us! WHAT A BLESSING!! Like most, I started trying to think who could have known, and who would do such a thoughtful thing? I then realized that I should give God the glory and know that God will bless our benefactor more than we ever could.

We are scheduled to fly out of Nashville Nov. 10th at 2 pm. We will fly through Philadelphia and arrive in Rome at about 8:30 am on the 11th and then catch a flight to Palermo. We plan on spending some time with Brother Salvatore Galioto and family getting to know one another. We will also go to Agrigento for a few days to get familiar with the area and meet the people. We are planning to go to Serradefalco, Catania, Motta, and any number of places in between as God leads. We plan on taking countless pictures to document our trip so we can share our experience with everyone here at home. Please pray that God will watch over us as we travel and guide our every step and word. Please pray also that God will give us the opportunity to share the Gospel with the people while we are there. Ultimately, pray that God will have His way with us on the trip and that we will be sensitive to the Holy Spirits leading.

God Bless,
